We wish everybody a wonderful and inspiring camp. Please note the following:

- Signing up for the workshops can be done in the Valhall cave (there will be registration forms every morning on the days we have workshops). You can also find a camp programme in the cave.
- Everybody is expected to join in at the Opening Ceremony on Friday, the Morning Meetings on Saturday and Sunday, and the Closing Ceremony on Monday.

- Please make sure you are at the workshop venue in time. Information about the activities and workshops can be found on the website www.druidcampsweden.com in the 'activities' section.

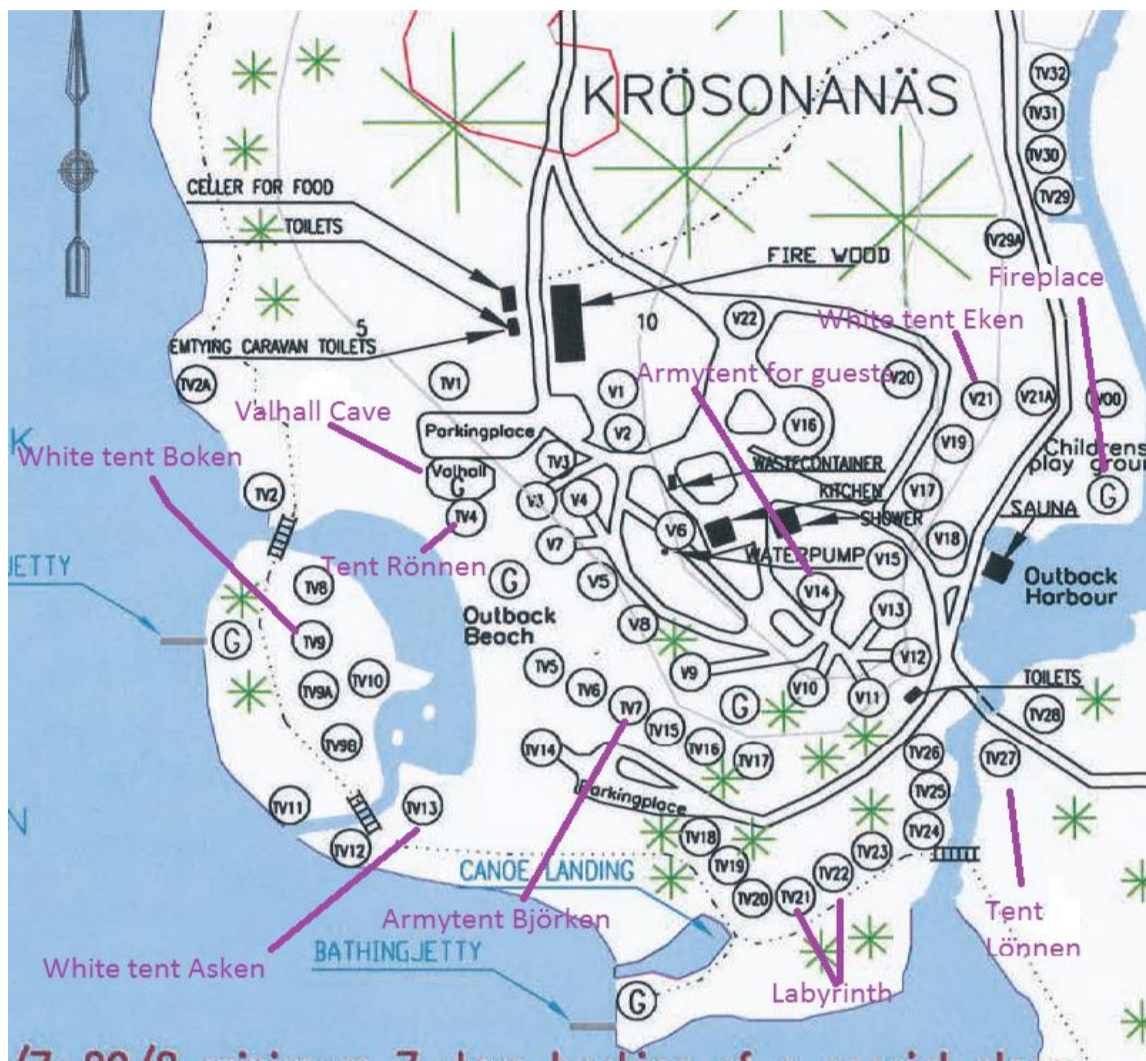

Within the purple lines is the part of the camping that is booked for the Midsummer Magic Camp.

You are free to place your tent or caravan wherever you like in the areas Channel Islands, Camp Outback and Eagle Point. (Except on roads and the spots that are reserved for the workshop tents, labyrinth and Ceremonial Circle.) You are allowed to park your car by your tent/caravan.

Camp Outback will be the central part of the camp, here you will find the venues for the activities and workshops.

You can find the Ceremonial Circle at Fridas mini beach (See purple circle)

This is the part of the camping (camp Outback on the large map) with all the venues for activities.
